PRIVATE RECEPTION FOR MEMBERS

If you come to Las Vegas for the annual convention I hope you will join us on Monday evening from 6 to 9pm for a private cocktail reception exclusive to members of Companion Connection, with invitations to be sent out shortly. Take advantage of this unique opportunity to meet the other members and catch up with old classmates, compare strategies and success stories, develop networking and referral relationships, and have a great time. Additionally, we will be inviting many special guests, including partners, vendors, referral organizations, industry experts and more. This will be your best chance to talk to them in a private setting where you can ask questions and learn everything you need to know about their services. Plus we'll be there too! I hope to see everyone there.
